REFUGEE COMMITTEE NEWS

The Holy Rosary Church Refugee Committee is excited to announce that your generous Project Hope fundraising efforts for refugees from a few years ago will finally be put to great use.

NORA MPWANKOLO arrived on Thursday, July 11th, 2019 in the afternoon. She has been living in a refugee camp in Ghana for about the last 5 years.

Your kind donations will help us support her and successfully integrate her into the community for the next year. We are also waiting on the arrival dates for two other families. We will let you know of expected arrival once we hear from the visa office.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! Now that we are actually starting to receive our refugees, we need more volunteers to help out in many areas including finding affordable temporary and longer-term accommodation, arranging and going to various appointments with the refugee, showing them around Toronto and all it has to offer, integrating them into our community and activities etc. If you can help in any way and are excited to help newcomers please call Parish Office at 416-923-8471 or e-mail Angeli at angeli@holyrosary.ca. Many thanks for your past and on-going support!
