THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!"

(Psalm 46.2)

The Pastor's Reflection

"Do not be afraid; just have faith." (Mk 5:37)

Dear brothers and sisters in the Lord:

This Sunday's Gospel presents us with the healing of two women: one is at the beginning of her life while the other is closer towards the end. Both are critically ill. Neither can be saved by the interventions of humans. However, Through the power of Jesus Christ, both are miraculously healed. The young girl is healed due to the faith of her father. The older woman is healed through her own faith. Whoever prays with great faith to the Lord, directly or on behalf of another, will always receive healing, whether it be physical and/or spiritual.

God created us for life. He did not make death (Wis 1:13). Death entered the world as a consequence of the sin of Adam and Eve. They were overcome by the devil's tricks. Thanks be to Jesus Christ: He left heaven to come down and rescue us from the depths of the netherworld (cf. Ps 30:2). He accomplished this by dying on the cross for us. God allows physical death so that evil will have a limit. The good news is that Jesus will not let us remain dead. Our souls are immortal. Moreover, we will one day participate in the resurrection, and we will "sing his praises and give thanks to his holy name" forever (Ps 30: 4).

Jairus, the synagogue official, and the woman afflicted with hemorrhages both had faith and they were rewarded for their faith. Do you have faith?

During our pilgrimage, we visited the Shrine of St Padre Pio. We heard the story of a woman whose child was very sick. The mother had heard about the holy stigmatic priest in Foggia, through word of mouth. In her desperation, she took her baby son on the long train ride to visit the great saint. Unfortunately, the child died during the journey. She refused to turn back home, and in tears, she brought her deceased son to Padre Pio. He asked her, "Why are you yelling so much? Don't you see that your son is sleeping?" (p. 189, Saint Padre Pio, Man of Hope, Renzo Allegri). Saint Padre Pio picked up the baby and brought him back to life. This story was verified by Dr. Sanguinetti, the head physician of the hospital. Amazingly, this is only one of the many miracles he performed throughout his life.

Let us continue to pray and ask the Lord for an increase in faith.
