TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; whom should I dread? When those who do evil draw near, they stumble and fall." (Cf. Psalm 26.1-2)

The Pastor's Reflection

"A crowd seated around him told him, 'Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' But he said to them in reply, 'Who are my mother and brothers?'" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." (Mk 3:24-5)

Dear brothers and sisters in the Lord:

Our Lord reminds us of the great gift given to us at baptism. We are brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ, the God Man. Our Lord is tired. He is preaching without a break and doesn't even have time to eat. His family (cousins, not literal brothers and sisters) are worried about him. In fact, they think he has "lost his mind" (Mk 3:21). Things escalate to the point where they go in search of him and demand to speak with him while he is still preaching. His words seem shocking. "Who are my mothers and brothers?" (Mk 3:33). For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." (Mk 3:24-5)

What exactly is Jesus saying? Is the Mother of God not doing the will of the Heavenly Father? I remember a TV evangelist who once made this comment. He is absolutely incorrect. In fact, when you read the Gospel of Luke, all references to the Mother of God praise her spiritual maturity. Elizabeth herself declared "Blessed are you among woman and blessed is the fruit of your womb!. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord." (Lk 1:42,45). Mary listens and meditates on everything within her Immaculate Heart.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that "by her complete adherence to the Father's will, to his Son's redemptive work, and to every prompting of the Holy Spirit, the Virgin Mary is the Church's model of faith and charity. Thus, she is a "preeminent and . . . wholly unique member of the Church"; indeed, she is the "exemplary realization" of the Church (967).

Let us ask the Virgin Mary for the grace to recognize the true gift of being brothers and sisters of her Divine Son. May her powerful intercession, as described in today's first reading from Genesis, crush everything that is evil in our lives so that we can grow in fidelity to the Father's will.
