FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory."

(Cf Psalm 16.15)

The Pastor's Reflection

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him." (Eph 1:3-4)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

This Sunday, St. Paul reminds us that we are the most spiritually wealthy people on the face of the earth. You read correctly! We are incredibly wealthy, in the best possible sense. Over my 12 years of priesthood, I have heard about, or witnessed, families falling apart because of disputes over inheritances. There are more tears shed over material goods destined to turn to dust rather than tears shed over the death of a loved one. It is heart wrenching to witness.

It is difficult for many to go throughout life "taking nothing for the journey" as Jesus instructs the disciples in today's Gospel (Mk 6:8). Religious take vows of poverty, the laity do not. They need money to support themselves and their families. In truth, how much do we really need? What is more important in the end?

St. Katherine Drexel was the wealthiest woman in America in the late 1800's. By today's standards, she would be considered a multi-millionaire. Once she discovered the richness of her faith, she gave it all up, approximately $200 million dollars according to today's economy. Katherine founded schools for indigenous and black youth so that they could have opportunities to thrive in adulthood. She is the only nun to ever open a university. For St Katherine, she was always rich, she had Christ!

Let us ask the Lord for a strong faith like Katherine. May we learn to set our hearts on the things of heaven rather than on the things of the earth. Moreover, may we grow in our generosity towards those missionaries who proclaim the Gospel for the salvation of souls.

Announcements
