DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

"Receive the joy of your glory, giving thanks to God, who has called you into the heavenly kingdom, alleluia."
(4 Esdras 2.36-37)

Dear brothers and sisters in the Lord:

Happy Divine Mercy Sunday!

"Soul: Lord, I doubt that You will pardon my numerous sins; my misery fills me with fright.

Jesus: My mercy is greater than your sins and those of the entire world. Who can measure the extent of my goodness? For you I descended from heaven to earth; for you I allowed myself to be nailed to the cross; for you I let my Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come, then, with trust to draw graces from this fountain. I never reject a contrite heart. Your misery has disappeared in the depths of My mercy. Do not argue with Me about your wretchedness. You will give me pleasure if you hand over to me all your troubles and griefs. I shall heap upon you the treasures of My grace." (#1485 Divine Mercy in My Soul, Diary of St. Faustina Kowalska.)

Ever doubt that Jesus really wants to forgive your sins? You're not the only one. St. Faustina struggled to grasp God's mercy. Like Thomas in today's Gospel, she thought it was too good to be true. The words you just read were Jesus' words to her. Put your souls and minds at rest. Jesus died for our sins so that we could be drawn back into union with him and the Heavenly Father. If we focus on our own wounds they will continue to fester. But, if we focus on Christ's wounds then ours will be truly healed.

On this Sunday, we are also grateful to the Lord for the canonization of St Carlo Acutis. He was a simple teenager who fell in love with the Christ and devoted himself to sharing his faith either online or in person. All of us are called to immerse ourselves in God's love and become his messengers of mercy to our deeply broken world. Please scan the QR code on the large floor poster in the main entrance of the Church to find out more about the Catholic Church's newest saint.

His favourite saint is St. John Paul II, for his caring heart towards young people and his contributions to the world as regards the Theology of the Body. In his free time, Keith enjoys reading and staying active. While residing at Serra House during his priestly formation, Keith would sometimes visit Holy Rosary parish and the surrounding area. He is most excited to serve the parish community through his love of the Catechism of the Catholic Church and its prerogative to share the joyful light of Christ out into the world.
