FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Save us, O Lord our God! And gather us from the nations to give thanks to your holy name, and make it our glory to praise you!"
(Psalm 105.47)

Weekly Biblical Reflection

"Consider your own calling, brothers and sisters. Not many of you were wise by human standards, rather... God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong, and God chose the lowly and despised of the world, those who count for nothing, to reduce to nothing those who are something, so that no human being might boast before God." (1 Cor 1:26-28)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians leaves a sour taste in the mouths of some people. They get upset over the fact that St. Paul is saying that God prefers the weak and lowly rather than the powerful. The Catholic Church has canonized saints who were scholars, kings, queens, priests, and nuns. They may have been powerful, beautiful, or very rich! Yet, the Church has also canonized saints who were former prostitutes, drug addicts, alcoholics, uneducated, and mentally ill homeless beggars. These lowly individuals certainly fit into God's preferred category.

God sees things differently than we do. People who are full of pride have no space for God or others in their lives. Those who acknowledge their own inner poverty are much more inclined to look outward and upward. For those who seek God, this makes them more open to him and his will. When we learn to rely entirely on God, he can and will do the most remarkable things through us.

One example that comes to mind is Blessed Anna Maria Taigi. She was an Italian wife, mother, and mystic. I was blessed to say Mass on her tomb a few weeks ago. Her body remains entirely incorrupt after 200 years. In fact, she looks like she is about to wake from a nap! Despite the fact that Blessed Anna Maria Taigi was uneducated and financially poor, for several decades she was given the singular grace to be able to see an image which looked like the sun before her. She would gaze into it and receive from God supernatural insights about people and world events. Popes, cardinals, bishops, and the poorest of the poor all sought and received spiritual guidance from Blessed Anna Maria Taigi.

All the saints attest that the most important thing is not what we know but who we love. If we truly love God above all else, we will then be able to understand and seek to live the beatitudes rather than reject them as does the spirit of our fallen world.

God bless, Fr. Peter
